The theory needs $\log r \approx 0$, which cannot be measured. Gains are in ranking fixed candidate sets; sampled and greedy outputs stay roughly unchanged. Correctness is treated as binary.