The theory needs $\log r \approx 0$, which cannot be measured. We rank fixed sets of candidate answers and do not test greedy outputs. Correctness is treated as binary.